Lunch

Meeting called to order at 11:30.

Introductions of all present.

Speakers: Gina Buchanan representative from The Management Trust

Topics Discussed: Building a better relationship and working with the HOA

-Discussed the biggest challenges working with tenants from both stand points.

Concerns from the HOA: Tenants not being given enough information and aren't being educated as to what is expected of them. Tenants, owners, and PM's not understanding the processes and how the HOA functions.

-Discussed HOA being non-profit and not having enough staff, and the inability to make decisions without board approval.

-Discussed the benefit for PM's to attend board meetings.

-Discussed how home owners should not consider themselves separate from the HOA, they pay the dues, they are the HOA.

Concerns from PM's: ACC Application requirements, lack of communication and inability to contact HOA, compliance letters not being sent to owner, tenant, and PM, inconsistent standards of HOA boards and constant board member changes, unrealistic time constraints, common areas not being held to the same standards as individual properties, exterior modifications vs. general maintenance, the concern tenants have that HOA's pick on them for being tenants, HOA's unwillingness to work with PM's, owners only.

-Discussed Home First and their role in the community.

Code of Ethics: 1-3 The Property Manager shall comply with all relevant local and state ordinances regarding the real estate law, licensing, insurance, and banking. Presented by Lee Blyle

New Business:

- Elections for 2018 board members
