NARPM Board Meeting

In attendance: Amelia Lyon, Colin Woodrow, Sherrie Featherly, Paul Heihn, Lisa Gohrick, Dan Williams, Dyana Finnegan, Heather Schwenk, & Mary Hurd.

Allie from Cherry Creek Radio gave a presentation about the possibilities of using radio to build greater name recognition for NARPM. She gave an informational packet detailing the advantages of radio advertising. She addressed the idea of NARPM qualifying for a non-profit discount in which there is a matching program in place between the non-profit and Cherry Creek Radio.

Amelia Lyon mentioned the possibility of asking Cherry Creek to become a NARPM affiliate which would seem beneficial to both parties.

Heather & Colin gave brief presentations regarding what they felt was most helpful from the recent NARPM conference.

There was a discussion about the possibility of the 2015 NARPM Regional Conference being held in Missoula and some of the provisions that will be necessary if that does happen. Sherrie Featherly will keep the Board updated about whether the conference will or won't be held here.

Lisa Gohrick plans to ask LeeAnn Giglione to teach our upcoming Ethics class.

Sherrie Featherly discussed the benefits of a multi-track system at regional conferences.

Paul Heihn discussed the Vendor Fair that's scheduled for September 18, 2014. He distributed a flyer for the upcoming event and mentioned that he'll try to recruit vendors to donate prizes to be given away during the course of the event.
