

Bringing Communities of Support to Students

Jaminsky, a senior in high school, is ALL IN for building relationships to help students like himself succeed in the classroom and beyond. Jaminsky was connected to his Communities In Schools® (CIS®) site coordinator, Mrs. Montgomery, during his freshman year of high school. Moving to a new town and attending a new school was an adjustment for Jaminsky, but Mrs. Montgomery was there to encourage and support him every step of the way. Jaminsky wanted to share his story because he recognized the impact CIS had on his life and that of other students. “Mrs. Montgomery made me realize that whether I’m a new student or not, I could find a place at this school. She’s my second mother, and I love the fact she cares about every student. As a senior who’s seen everything, what she’s done for me and other kids at this school has just been an amazing thing to be a part of.
